

Kona Leilani Vacation Home 2025

Favorite Beaches

Kua Bay

159 locals recommend

Kua Bay is a favorite for travellers. We love it too. It has a lifeguard , bathroom facilities and showers.

Kealakekua Bay

Great location for family with tables, shade and a portable bathstall. Bring your chairs and snorkeling gear. You will love it.

Ho'okena Beach Park

86-4322 Mamalahoa Hwy

Bring chairs, your picnic lunch and your beach gear. Enjoy this beach only 10 minutes from our home!

Kona Paradise

Bring your hats and umbrellas. Bring your reef walkers as the ground is pebbly. Lovely beach to snorkel. A lot of diving takes place in the bay.

Kikaua Point Park

10 locals recommend

As with all the beaches, be sure to bring your snorkeling and beach gear. This is a special place and was once a village. So much of our island has the cultural history

Manini Beach

16 locals recommend

come prepared to hunt for parking. Come earlier in the morning.

Sightseeing

Kokua Kailua Downtown Village Stroll

Downtown Kona is easy access with swimming spots up and down the main road, ALI'I DRIVE. Lovely sites to see such as the IOLANI PALACE and the Catholic Church.

Kaohe Road

Welcome to our home. You will find easy driveway parking and location in the subdivision. Our home is located above Carissa Street.

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

889 locals recommend

Dress warm as it is sometimes cool at that elevation. And it is breezy.

Merrie Monarch Festival

Tickets are purchased a year in advance. The announcement comes in the fall. Be prepared to be outsold.

Botanical Garden at University of Hawaii - Hilo

8 locals recommend

If you are a resident, you can get in for free or reduced rate. But it is truly a beautifully landscaped gardens. The plants are carefully tended to. Bring bug spray

Zoo Parking Lot

A fun trip for the family.

Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau National Historical Park

State Highway 160

It can get warm, but you will enjoy this park. There is a small gift shop and on occasion, demonstrations of the local culture.

Cultural Events

Mauna Kea

OUR HOME

87-450 Kaohe Rd, Captain Cook, HI
96704, USA

RESERVE TODAY ! Contact us and book a vacation with us! We will take great care.